

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
SOUTHERN DIVISION

MICHAEL JEROME KING, #N6606

PLAINTIFF

VERSUS

CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:13-cv-362-LG-JMR

CITY OF PASCAGOULA, et al.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER OF PARTIAL DISMISSAL

This matter comes before the Court, sua sponte, for consideration of the dismissal of Defendant Pascagoula Police Department. Plaintiff filed the instant civil action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 on September 16, 2013. The named Defendants are the City of Pascagoula, Pascagoula Police Department, and Sheila Jenkins. Plaintiff's Complaint [1] as well as his Response [12] to the Court's Order [10] allege that Defendants violated his constitutional rights. Having reviewed the Complaint [1], Plaintiff's Responses [12] and applicable law, the Court has determined that Plaintiff cannot maintain this case against Defendant Pascagoula Police Department.

The Pascagoula Police Department is not a proper party because it is not a political subdivision or separate legal entity in and of itself. See Upchurch v. City of Moss Point, Civil Action No. 1:10-CV-228-LG-RHW, 2011 WL 5082224, *2-3 (S.D. Miss. Oct. 26, 2011)(holding that the Moss Point Police Department was not a proper party because it does not enjoy a separate legal existence from the City of Moss Point); Stewart v. Jackson Co., Miss., No. 1:07-CV-1270-WJG-JMR, 2008 WL 4287112 at *1 (S.D. Miss. Sept. 16, 2008)(citing Miss. Code Ann. § 21-17-1) (determining under the law of Mississippi that "a city's police department is not considered to be an entity separate from the city”). Because the Pascagoula Police Department is merely a department of the City of Pascagoula, this Defendant is not a proper party and must be dismissed.

The Court, however, determines that at this stage of the screening process, Plaintiff has stated an arguable claim in his Complaint [1] and Response [12] against Defendants City of Pascagoula and Sheila Jenkins. Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Defendant Pascagoula Police Department is dismissed with prejudice as a Defendant. A separate Order directing summons to issue for Defendants City of Pascagoula and Sheila Jenkins will be entered.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED this the 20th day of November, 2013.
